To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

OUR LARRABEE, it will be remembered, said that Gov. RANDALL pardoned the Monk LEAHEY so that he could take the stump and help defeat him (LARRABEE) in his district. We recently published the two letters from LARRABEE to the Governor, asking for LEAHEY's pardon, and the Whitewater Register, on reading them, exclaims:

> "If such double-faced rascality as this does not suffice to show the people of the Third District that "our member" deserves to be "cleaned out," they must be blind as bats."

THE SUGGESTION of the Madison Journal that a grand national encampment of Wide-Awakes be held in one of the States, during the campaign, is receiving a general airing throughout the country. Here is what the Cincinnati Commercial says:

> "Better stay at home and attend to your local business, Messrs. Wide-Awakes. There is no State so doubtful as to justify your encampment in it; and you can do more by working in the school districts and cross-roads, then by marching and countermarching up and down the face of the earth."

REPUBLICANISM IN LAMARTINE, FOND DU LAC CO.—The Republicans of Lamartine have organized a club for the purpose of disseminating true principles. The town has been canvassed, and a fund raised to put documents in the hands of all. There was a good turn out at the last meeting. All seemed to do what they could to secure the election of the Republican nominees, and thus vindicate Republican principles.—Messrs. CARTER, of Fairwater, and LAGRANGE, of Ripon, made effective speeches, which were received with applause. We promise a strong Republican vote next November. G. F. CLARK.

THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE says there are one hundred and forty-six papers in that State now supporting the Republican candidates, which opposed FREMONT and the Republican party in 1856. Of all the FILLMORE papers, there are, says the Gazette, but two which now support BELL and EVERETT. LINCOLN is sure of an overwhelming majority in the old Keystone State.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Cincinnati Gazette writes, in relation to the Springfield demonstration: "Mr. LINCOLN's bearing to-day under such a tribute of personal popularity and admiration as I have never before seen paid to any human being, more and more convinces me of the real greatness of his character and of his fitness for the highest position in the gift of the people."

A DEMOCRAT, writing from St. Paul, says: "The nomination of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE is gaining in favor every day. Although I anticipate much strength for them here, they are stronger than I supposed. A reaction against DOUGLAS and for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE has commenced and it is far-reaching and wide-spread."

MANUAL HENSHAW, of Erie county, N. Y., a Whig and American of forty years standing says: "I cannot promise any better way for the Americans to defeat the three D's, (Democratic, Demagogus, DOUGLAS) but to cast their votes for LINCOLN and HAMLIN."

DELIVERING NEWSPAPERS TO CLUBS.—It has been decided by the Post Office Department that deputy postmasters are not required to distribute newspapers, sent to one address, among members of a club from a furnished list of names, unless a quarter's postage is paid in advance.

THE Albany Statesman says the chances of fusion between the BRECKINRIDGE men and DOUGLASITES are gone. DICKINSON ruled dead against it, and the entire body stood square up to the decision of the sage of Binghampton.

THE WAY TO DO IT.—The Troy Times avers that, during Mr. DOUGLAS' sojourn in that city, "a consultation was held between him and several others, in which it was determined that the best way to help him was to organize BELL-EVERETT Clubs."

DOUGLAS PRESSED CONGRESS to intervene to force slavery into Kansas, Nebraska and New Mexico, and now says Congress must not intervene to put it out. He is for non-intervention only against freedom.

SUICIDE.—Mr. CHARLES OCTAVIA committed suicide whilst upon a hunting excursion in Minnesota. His body was discovered a few days afterwards, protected by his faithful dog. A letter, written by himself, was found upon his person, stating his intentions and reasons for committing the act, and the disposal of his property, which was considerable. Mr. OCTAVIA was a resident of Paris, and visited this country as a tourist. His only relative residing in the United States was Mrs. THOS. F. CORDES, of Wauwatosa, Wis.

NEW LINE OF BOATS.—The new daily line of boats running between La Crosse and St. Paul, in connection with the Milwaukee and Minnesota Railroad, commence making regular trips this week. The boats composing the line are the Favorite, Frank Steele and Winona. These are all well-known boats, provided with every accommodation that travellers could desire; and from their light draught they are more reliable and able to make better time during the present low stage of water in the Mississippi, than the heavier boats of the North-Western line.

BALTIMORE is to have a grand city Park in time, having purchased "Druid Hill" at a cost of $500,000 for that purpose. The grounds have been for nearly 150 years in the Rogers family, and were occupied at one time by Col. NICHOLAS ROGERS of the U. S. army during the Revolution, an aid to General Du Coudray and afterwards to Baron DE KALB.

WE LEARN by a notice in the Herald "that extensive arrangements have been made by the citizens of the western part of Grant county, for a grand "Harvest Home Pic-Nic Festival," to be held August 23, in the large grove near the residence of J. C. ORR, in the town of Tafton.

BURGLARY AT GENEVA.—A correspondent informs us that the store of MORRIS & Co., at Geneva, (Walworth county) was entered and robbed of a large amount on Thursday night last. On Saturday, WILLIAM McFADDEN was arrested on suspicion, and committed.

Personal.

DEAD.—Mr. CHARLES BURR, aged seventy, died at Saratoga Springs on Tuesday evening. He was the nearest male relative of AARON BURR, and was immensely wealthy. He formerly peddled almanacs around Albany for a living.

THE REPORT that Gen. CASS is unwell is contradicted by a near neighbor of his, who conversed with him in the early part of the present week. The General was then in excellent health.

THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER, Esq., who was charged with the solicitorship of a grant of right from Costa Rica to AMBROSE W. THOMPSON, of New York, for a railroad across the Isthmus of Chiriqui, has succeeded in obtaining the charter, which was unanimously approved by the Costa Rica Senate, and on the 4th of July last the Chamber of Deputies passed it by a nearly unanimous vote.—We understand that Mr. M. will issue some papers soon, entitled "What I saw abroad since January last."

THE REV. DR. NIELL, of Philadelphia, died in that city on Wednesday morning, at the age of 82 years. He was formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Albany; then removing to Philadelphia, he became the head of the Church in Spruce street.—He was also for some time the honored President of Dickinson College, leaving that position to act as the General Agent of the Presbyterian Board of Publication. During his unusually long and vigorous life he was a daily, unobtrusive example of the beauty and loveliness which belong to the character of the Christian man.

MISS KATE DICKENS, the second daughter of CHARLES DICKENS, was recently married to Mr. CHARLES COLLINS, a brother of WILKIE COLLINS, and a rising author.

NOT long ago SCROGGS was a terrible fellow, according to the New York Express; but now that SCROGGS has announced his good sense by coming over to LINCOLN, the Express says:

> "The Union Ship, rid of these barnacles, will only glide on all the smoother through."

GEN. SCOTT, who took the stump in 1852, is the only precedent DOUGLAS has. It will be remembered that Gen. SCOTT was defeated, the Little Giant will also be. The stump is no place for a Presidential candidate.

MR. CHARLES READE's forthcoming work, entitled The Eighth Commandment, is not, it appears, a new work of fiction, as was supposed, but a comprehensive treatise upon the subject of plagiarism, and the rights in literary and artistic productions.

TWO POOR FOOLS in Livingston county, N. Y., as bereft of brains as of money, go about the streets wearing the one his whiskers and the other his head half shaved close, until the election of LINCOLN or DOUGLAS lets one of them return to their natural hair.

ROBERT BONNER, of the New York Ledger, was on Saturday voted into the Board of Brokers, of New York, by a strong and complimentary vote.

DAN RICE is exhibiting himself and show in Cincinnati.

THADDEUS HYATT has offered a reward of $1,000 for the invention of a practical flying machine. THADDEUS is almost light headed enough to fly without a machine.

Squibs.

IT MAY be news to many when we tell them our Wisconsin girls descended from a good stock. We were reminded of it forcibly by reading in the Columbus Journal that the daughter of Mr. T. C. SMITH, (one of the most influential and wealthy farmers in that vicinity) has volunteered her assistance during the harvest, and as they were short of hands, she day after day took control of the reaper and did good service in the emergency. It is but justice to say in this connection that Miss SMITH has won a number of prizes at equestrian displays in this State, and is an accomplished lady.

ONE OF THE workmen on a gravel train, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad recently threw a heavy sledge hammer from the cars (while they were in motion) intending it to drop by the side of the road where some work was to be done. Unfortunately, however, it struck a laborer in the face crushing out all semblance of humanity; and leaving him a most ghastly spectacle, suffering intolerable pain but unable to cry out.

WE LEARN from the Madison Argus, that the Pike's Peakers who are returning to this State, are bringing with them large numbers of buffalo calves. The domestication of these animals may have an important bearing on the future stock of Wisconsin.

THE MOST RECENT CASE of "death by vanity" is given by a French paper. A young lady of Lyons, who was engaged to be married, was much joked about her corpulency. She, however, laughed at the sallies of her friends. Subsequently, however, she was taken ill and suddenly died. A post mortem examination disclosed that her intestines were burnt up with acids, which she had taken to lessen her size.

IT IS NOW DEFINITELY SETTLED that the name of Ranche, which the Democrats have given their club houses, means cattle farm.

Crops, &c., at Eagle.

EAGLE, Aug. 13, 1860.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The harvest is nearly over in this section, and the farmers agree in saying that so good a crop of every thing they never have raised before. Wheat will average twenty-five bushels per acre. Rye and Oats, are large crops, and Corn and Potatoes promise to yield very largely. Business at the Centre appears dull at present.—Political excitement is at a low ebb, though there is a resolution among the friends of the different candidates which shows itself occasionally in a little flurry. Mr. C. W. POTTER, Express Agent at this place, met with a little accident on Friday last. He was attempting to get a large package into a freight train passing the depot, and the train was going with such speed that he was thrown from the platform on to the track with so much force that his right arm was broken, besides being bruised considerably elsewhere. As ever &c., P.

MURDER IN CLEVELAND.—A tailor named WILLIAM SALMON was stabbed by a negro in the streets of Cleveland on Thursday evening last, and instantly killed.

MR. J. B. SAWYER, of Broadhead, we are sorry to learn, was kicked in the temple by a horse last week, and lies dangerously ill.

LAST Thursday a crazy man was found in a state of nudity, in a tamarack swamp three miles east of Jefferson. When discovered he was leaning against a tree his shirt hanging on a limb and his trowsers lying on a log. He was nearly dead from hunger and exposure, but is now comfortably lodged in the Poor House.

STILL LIVING.—Three of the choir of young girls who, dressed in white, greeted Washington as he entered Trenton in 1789, on his way to assume the Presidency, and strewed his pathway with flowers, still survive. One yet lives in Trenton; one is the mother of Senator Chesnut, of South Carolina, and one, Mrs. Sarah Hand, resides in Cape May county, N. J.

PRENTICE says that between a Douglas fever and a Breckinridge sweat, office-holders have a hard time generally. Their feelings lie on one side, their bread and butter on the other, and they themselves lie generally.

HELP FOR THE SYRIANS.

Letter from the American Consul at Beirut—Arrival of Syrian Envoys.

The following letter was read at the Monthly Concert of prayer for Missions, in Providence, R. I., on the 4th inst.:

BEIRUT, SYRIA,
Thursday, June 28, 1860.

MY DEAR SIR:—You have doubtless heard of the horrible massacres that have just been perpetrated upon the poor Christians of Mount Lebanon by the Druses, aided in some cases by Turkish soldiery.

A few facts may give you an idea of the present state of things in Syria. The American missionaries have estimated the loss sustained by the Christians at 10,500, and that of the Druses about 1,200. The inhabitants of the Christian towns of Deir il Kamr and Hasbeiya were brutally slaughtered in cold blood, after a full surrender had been made. Thirty or forty convents have been plundered and burned, and the monks were put to death, some of whom were French. Nearly one hundred villages have been burned, and the crops of the peasantry destroyed! Many churches also have been burned—among them the American Mission Chapel at Hasbeiya, and the school houses at Deir il Kamr.

The facts are enough to strike the civilized world with horror; but there is yet something to be told. It is believed that not less than sixty thousand Christians are now homeless and starving, and have no other hope for subsistence than the charity of the Christian world! More than 5,000 fugitives have been supported by the consuls, missionaries, merchants and convents of Beirut; but this is only a temporary arrangement. Something must be done for the starving, homeless thousands who are now hiding in caves and other secret places until peace shall be declared. Beirut is no longer a place of safety for Christians. Moslem fanaticism is now fully aroused, and the Turkish Government has found it necessary to station a platoon of soldiers in every consul's house for their protection. Thousands of the Christian refugees, and large numbers of the native residents, have fled the country. Indeed, the land is full of misery and the deepest woe.

American missionaries, aided by the guards from the American Consulate, have brought away many poor, besieged and persecuted Christians, whose lives have been thus preserved; and the English vessels of war have picked up about 2,000 fugitives, many wounded women and children, who had escaped to the sea coast—and there is still work for them to do.

What can be done in the United States for these famishing widows and orphans? I will say nothing now of vengeance, for the European Powers will no doubt exact justice for this great crime; but humanity calls upon me not only to distribute bread to the crowds around my house, but to present their cause to my countrymen, and to arouse their sympathies in behalf of this persecuted people.

The King of Greece has sent a sum of money for their present relief, and efforts are being made elsewhere to collect money for that object. America sent food to Ireland and to Greece, and will not something be done for the Christains of Syria?

Respectfully and truly Yours,
J. AUGUSTUS JOHNSON.
Rev. FRANCIS WAYLAND, D. D.

Among the arrivals by the steamer at New York, day before yesterday, were Messrs. A. Abcarius and B. F. N. Soussa, two native Syrian gentlemen, who have come to the United States in the hope of obtaining contributions for the relief of the unfortunate Christians of that country. They bring letters from the American Missionaries, and Ayoub Bey Tarabolsky and other eminent men in Beirut, warmly commending and urging their mission, which was undertaken by the authority and direction of agents at Lebanon. By the efforts of Ayoub Bey a considerable sum has been raised in Egypt, and similar measures for the relief of the sufferers are in progress in England.

The Harvest.

The farmers are still laboring diligently in reaping their crops, and the wheat and rye must be nearly all gathered. We have had some heavy showers during the past week, but we do not hear that any serious damage has been done. The oat crop is also ripening very fast, and promises a great yield.—Manitowoc Herald of Thursday.

THERE is but very little grain coming into market yet. Most of the farmers are still harvesting, and have no time to thresh and bring to market either old or new wheat.—Our buyers are preparing as rapidly as possible for the fall trade, and will be prepared to buy and store all that can find its way to this market. The prices for wheat range from 70c to 80c. Oats 25c. Potatoes 20a25c. —Winona Republican of Friday.

THE WHEAT CROP.—We hear of immense estimates of the number of bushels of wheat per acre which will reward the farmer for his labor at this harvest. One farmer in Dakota county says he is certain the yield will average in that county thirty bushels per acre! This, we think, is "a little too steep," but the crop is, no doubt, heavier than was ever before known.—St. Paul Minnesotian.

THE GUILLOTINE.—The axe has again fallen, and the head of Marshal Jewett has been thrown into the dead-house. James B. Howe is his successor, and will forthwith commence his work of decapitation among the deputies. Mr. Jewett is made to pay the penalty of his treachery,—that of playing into the hands of the Douglasites, under the cloak of the Administration—and, although he worshipped so devoutly at the late Breckinridge altar in Syracuse, his guilt was unpardonable, his iniquities past blotting out. This act opens the breach still wider in the Northern District, and now, too, comes a test. Other deputy marshals are to be appointed, and the integrity of applicants must be proved, after which they will be required to make the most solemn pledges to work both day and night for the success of Breckinridge and Lane, not because the Administration loves them more, but Douglas and Johnson less. The decapitation is made for two reasons; 1st. That office-holders may take warning; and 2d: To strengthen the party. The latter effect it will certainly have, and the faction is jubilant. Information received in this city seems to indicate that the end is not yet, but that other gentlemen who are serving the dear people will suffer a like fate, unless they prove their devotion to the cause by whetting the axe and selecting another victim to appease the wrath of the enraged Administration.—Oswego Com. Times.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.—On Friday last a man by the name of John Klingensmith was examined before Justice Wyne, charged with having committed a murder in Ohio.—He had been working at one place and another in this neighborhood for about four months, and had been going under the name of John Smith. George Smale and brothers having known Klingensmith in Ohio, and finding out that he had changed his name, and meanwhile having heard that a reward was offered for a man by Klingensmith's name, who bore his exact descripton, had his arrested and brought before Justice Wyne, and he was sent up to Lancaster jail to await "further orders."—Grant County Witness.

NATURAL CURIOSITY.—James Hollman, of Platteville, brought into our office on Monday last a piece of ice which had within it a natural curiosity. Nature had some how or other formed in the ice as ideal and perfect a little vase as ever could have been conceived by any one, and when placed in the light of the sun it was as bright as silver.—Its beautiful shape was well worth preserving, and an ambrotype of it ought to have been taken; but it was soon resolved into the liquid element, and its beauty lost except in remembrance.—Grant Co. Witness.

THE SEA SERPENT.—A party of excursionists from Boston claim to have seen a sea serpent off Cape Cod last Sunday. They describe the creature as being black, about one hundred feet long, with a head almost the size of a Kossuth hat, and the body as large round as a tar-bucket.

MAY AND DECEMBER.—Among the curiosities discovered by the census taker, is a pretty little girl of fifteen, in the southern part of Monson, Mass., who has a husband fifty-seven years of age.

AT THE recent Stevens' book sale in London several autographs of Washington were sold. One of them brought $55.

THE Michigan Farmer estimates the wheat crop of that State this year at 9,000,000 bushels.

TWO GIRLS, cousins, aged 15 and 16, hung themselves in Jackson county, Iowa, recently, on account of loving the same man.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY has authorized the re-coinage of 2,000,000 gold dollars, now in New York, into $20 gold pieces.

EXCURSION OF THE MUSICAL SOCIETY TO PINE LAKE.—The excursion on Sunday of the Musical Society was a very grand affair. Seven cars, loaded, left the city at half-past eight, and were joined by large deputations from Watertown, Waukesha and Pewaukee at the ground. There were between three and four thousand people present during the day. No dancing was permitted, the large company enjoying themselves in a social manner listening to the excellent music or strolling about the large park—which, by the way, is a beautiful piece of ground. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure. Everything moved off joyously. Mr. FESSLER made a speech of welcome to those who joined with the Milwaukee folks. He was responded to in a happy manner by Mr. LINDEMAN, of Watertown, and Dr. COOK, of the same place.

We would now suggest that the Musical Society get up an excursion to take place on any day but the Sabbath, and they will thus please everybody and have another delightful time.

SABBATH SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—We learn that a pic-nic of the Summerfield M. E. Sabbath School is to come off next Thursday, at the North Point, above the residence of Mr. LOCKWOOD. Preparations have been made for having the occasion one of more than usual enjoyment; indeed, we are assured that it will be one of the best pic-nics given this year. All manner of good things will be furnished by the friends of the church. Everybody knows where the North Point is, and the beautiful grounds thereabout. The Horse Railroad runs all the way to it, which makes it very convenient for those who wish to attend. These pic-nics are the pleasantest gatherings we have now-a-days, and we presume this one will be largely attended. Tickets for the dinner only ten cents.

A tent will be erected, at which ice cream, lemonade, nuts, candies, apples, peaches, etc., will be offered for sale. A band of music will also be in attendance.

SEVERAL OF OUR COTEMPORARIES persist in saying that the Rev. Mr. BARTLETT imitates BEECHER and resembles him in some particulars. We can't see it. BEECHER is logical, BARTLETT is sentimental; BEECHER is dramatic, BARTLETT is artistic; BEECHER preaches Christ, BARTLETT does not always; BEECHER is earnest, impassioned, convincing; BARTLETT is impassioned, but never convincing; BEECHER tells truths in a forcible manner for the truth's sake, BARTLETT for the sake of the manner; BEECHER reaches the heart, BARTLETT the sensorium; BEECHER's light is that of revelation and genius, BARTLETT's that of morality and ambition.

MILWAUKEE is actually surrounded by potatoes. A ride through the outskirts of the city recently disclosed to us the fact that thousands of bushels of these esculents are flourishing about the shanties and cottages of the poorer classes. Never before have we seen the suburbs in such a state of cultivation. It would seem as though the poor could never suffer again for want of food.—Every spare foot of ground has a potato hill. All along the roads, trenching upon the rail road ties, under the fences and down the sides of clayey banks, the green and promising plants are flourishing.

AMBROTYPE MEDALS.—We have received a couple of the neatest and prettiest portraits of LINCOLN and HAMLIN that we have seen. The heads are not much over an eighth of an inch across and yet are perfect ambrotype likenesses of the Republican nominees and are put up in a circular case of polished metal making a beautiful medal that can be worn in a button hole or carried in the pocket without inconvenience.

They are from J. H. JOHNSON & Co., 70 State Street, Chicago, who also supplies badges and medals of all the Presidential candidates to the trade. Read his advertisement.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL—FAIR AT MELMS' GARDEN.—Last winter, a number of German protestant ladies in the Fifth and Eighth Wards, formed a society whose object it was to support an industrial school, where young girls without distinction could get free instruction in all kinds of useful handiwork. This society hold their first fair on Wednesday afternoon, the 18th inst., at Melms' Garden, where the different kinds of useful and ornamental articles made by the scholars will be exhibited and sold to the highest bidder. The managers of the school will be happy to see all the friends of the enterprise at the fair to encourage them in their laudable enterprise. T.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP.—The renowned cantatrice, Madame ANNA BISHOP, will be in Milwaukee on the 20th, and give one of her grand vocal and instrumental concerts here. Her tour through Illinois has been a complete success.

A YOKE OF OXEN ran away down East Water street last evening. Everybody thought it laughable but the owner. They turned the corner of Mason street, and made for BUTLER & POST's, probably having heard of his excellent animal fare.

ON Saturday a man was arrested for going through the streets with a bunch of prairie chickens. He was afterwards released because they (the chickens) came from Chicago.

OCTOBER overshadowed us yesterday.—The sear and yellow leaf could almost be seen. Late in the evening it was highly pleasant—near a fire.

THE Free Democrat mentions the name of JOHN LOCKWOOD for Sheriff. Mr. LOCKWOOD is an efficient man and very well qualified for that office.

Emigration Settling in for Wisconsin.

Hundreds of emigrants are continually arriving in our city, bound for the interior to settle on our unoccupied lands. We learn that many thousands are now on their way from Germany to take up their homes among us. The German emigration to Wisconsin this year will amount to more than that of the three last years combined. The arrivals in New York show that a larger majority of the emigration this year is bound for Wisconsin. We learn that our German citizens throughout the State are in receipt of letters from their friends in all parts of Germany acquainting them of the fact that extensive arrangements are now being made in all the German States to emigrate to Wisconsin next year. The news of our abundant crops have reached Germany, and fired this part of the old world with a desire to come to this land of promise and plenty.—We say welcome, thrice welcome, to every honest son of Germany. Come with your mines of wealth, come with your love of thrift, come with your strong arms, come with your hatred of tyranny, come with your happy wives and children, sons of the Rhine! There is room enough for you all.

Wisconsin is not only the richest agricultural State in the Union, but it is also the healthiest State. Such a thing as a native of this State dying with the consumption is indeed a rare occurrence; while thousands of instances are on record where persons who have been afflicted with this complaint in the older States for years, have found a permanent cure by inhaling the pure atmosphere of Wisconsin. Aside from all of these advantages, Wisconsin contains more mineral wealth than any other State. There is more copper and iron in our Superior regions than in all the other States combined, while lead exists in nearly as great quantities. This endless ocean of minerals can supply the demand of the nation for centuries to come. Good times are coming for Wisconsin. To-day she presents the richest scene the eye ever beheld. Her fields present one complete ocean of golden products, from one end of the State to the other, which will command millions of dollars, and enable every citizen to free himself from debt, and also enable Wisconsin to lift up her head with pride, and take an enviable position among her sister States.

MUNICIPAL COURT, Aug. 13.—John White disorderly, penalty and costs $6,50. Paid.

John Jones, disorderly penalty and costs $6,50. Paid.

John ——, assault and battery, fined $10 and costs. Paid.

John Bolden having in his possession 25 prairie chickens, contrary to the statute.—He claims that he or somebody else, bought them in Chicago.

AUGUST TERM, July, 12.—The Grand Jury commenced its session last Monday, and closed on Saturday, bringing in nine indictments, as follows, except some who have not yet been arraigned.

Jno. Hendricks indicted for larceny. Arraigned in open Court, plead not guilty and continued to 2d Monday in September.

Geo. Williams, two indictments, one for obtaining money to the amount of $100 under false pretences, and the other for larceny. Arraigned, plead guilty, and the case will be tried at once.

L. McBride, indicted for keeping house of ill-fame. Plead guilty, and case set down for to-morrow.

Eno. Moses, indicted for larceny of pig iron from the dock of Johnson & Olmsted. Plead not guilty and the case set down for to-morrow or next day.

S. M. BURNHAM, ESQ., of Chicago, General Western Agent of the New York and Erie R. R., called upon us yesterday. Mr. BURNHAM has a host of friends in Milwaukee, and will go away with the number in no wise lessened.

WE ARE indebted to J. S. VINCENT, of Lima Centre, for a mess of green corn of rare quality. Some of the same sort is for sale at the produce agency of M. ROOT & Co., 259 Third street.

THE HOME LEAGUE, Vol. 1, No. 1, has reached us. Our friend THOMSON, formerly of the Free Democrat, is the motive power, and with so much live steam it ought to be a fast paper.

THIS MORNING, WALL, the City Auctioneer, has an auction sale of furniture, millinery goods, ten dozen spades, a lot of yankee notions, a superior French mahogany sofa, &c.

THE NEW CHURCH on Astor street is progressing finely, and will be ready for occupancy before long.

Mr. CODDING will speak in Milwaukee Aug. 28th.

Freight Notice.

OFFICE OF THE RECEIVER OF THE
MILWAUKEE & HORICON R. R. Co.
Milwaukee, July 23, 1860.

Shippers of freight to Waupun, Brandon, Ripon, Berlin and other points on the line, and in the vicinity of the Milwaukee & Horicon railroad, must deliver their freight for shipment to such points, at the freight depot of the La Crosse & Milwaukee railroad, until further notice. Pure Ohio Catawba Brandy!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS BEEN DULY appointed the only and sole agent for this truly

PURE MEDICINAL BRANDY

For the City of Milwaukee. This Brandy has been thoroughly analyzed by the N. Y. State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, Chemist and Prof. Urman Shepard, Charlestown, S. C.; Prof. T. R. Chilton, New York; Prof. Pratt, of Savannah; Prof. Lamont, J. R. Nichols, of Boston; and Dr. Cox, of Cincinnati; and pronounced by them to be strictly pure, and an excellent stimulant in all cases where pure Brandies are indicated.

The manufacturer of this fine Brandy guarantees (or will refund the money) that it will cure

GENERAL DEBILITY AND NERVOUSNESS.

Physicians are now prescribing it in the place of Paregoric—not having the deadening effect of that medicine upon the brain.

The physicians in each city, town or village in the State are solicited to apply to the undersigned, who will give them a bottle free of charge, to try before prescribing.

Dose for an infant six weeks old, one teaspoonful, diluted in two tablespoonsful of cold water, and given by the teaspoonful every five minutes until relief is effected.

Adults and children in proportion.

The want of pure Medical Brandy has long been felt in this country.

The properties contained in this Brandy are more stringent than French Brandies. This the manufacturers claim are the merits, and challenge the world to disprove these facts.

Addressed to Henry Ward Beecher by B. F. Barrett.

"Let our idea of the One Infinite Person be lost, or blurred, and dissipated, and there is darkness or lurid twilight on all the landscapes of the mind."—Sears.

"Our properly orthodox teachers and churches, while professing three persons, also retain the verbal profession of one person. They suppose themselves really to hold that God is one person. And yet they most certainly do not; they only confuse their understanding, and call their confusion faith."—Bushnell.

GRAND CHANCE TO SECURE A HOME upon such terms that any one who has any industry can do it. Mr. Glidden, who owns one-half of Lockwood & Glidden's Addition, has made me his agent, to sell his lots in said Addition, at unusually low prices, to any one who will improve them, and upon such terms that any one can meet the payments. It is unnecessary to go into argument to convince one who has any judgment that this property, which is situated in the First Ward, must, and will be the most desirable residence property in the city of Milwaukee. It is in full view of the Lake and on high ground, which overlooks the city, and a more healthy situation cannot be found. Its location for business men is very desirable, the Horse Railroad passing through it every fifteen or twenty minutes. Much more could be said about this valuable property, but we will only say, any persons who have any desire to purchase any of said Lots, if they will call at my office they can see a map, and I will go with them and show them the Lots, and they can judge for themselves. The terms on which said Lots will be sold are as follows: Ten per cent. in twelve months; 15 per cent. in two years; and 25 per cent. every year thereafter until the amount is paid, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, interest not to commence until six months after the date of purchase. Here is a chance never before offered, and there is every reason to believe that this property will advance 100 per cent. in less than twelve months. The great advantage of the Horse Railroad must, and will make it very desirable. The lots are free from all encumbrances whatever. Certificate of title will be furnished to any one who may purchase.

MOFFAT'S
Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of [illegible] years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description: King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

GREENBUSH, July 31, 1860.

TRIBULATIONS OF THE GREAT EASTERN.—This great steamship company are evidently in the pursuit of money under difficulties. The company entered into contract some months ago with the Grand Trunk Railway Company to sail the steamer to Portland; accordingly the Railway managers expended a large sum in building docks etc., when lo, and behold! the steamer went to New York and defeated the fond expectations of our Canadian friends, saying nothing of the disappointment to the citizens of Portland, who had also expended some $60,000 for the accommodation of expected visitors. A suit to recover damages was brought by the duped Railway men which is still in Court. The second suit has been commenced against the owners of the craft, for infringement of an American patent, in the use of the paddles and screw combined, as a motive power.—The damages claimed amount to $60,000.

Besides the probability of being brought to suffer the penalty of the law, the daily expenses threaten to rob the owners of thousands of dollars. Her per diem expenses are $1,500, and the interest on her capital stock amounts to $500 per day. Thus $2,000 have each day to be overcome before anything can apply on dividends; saying nothing about extraordinary expenses for repairs nor any sinking fund as a set-off against "wear and tear." The Great Eastern is evidently an elephant on the hands of the owners—and a very badly managed elephant at that. The exhibition of the ship in New York was a failure, inasmuch as by bad management the Directors did not realize one dollar where they might have realized ten. Truly, the vessel is a expensive monster.

HICKMAN AND DOUGLAS.—In his speech at West Chester (his home) on Friday last, Hon. JOHN HICKMAN made some very pointed statements concerning DOUGLAS, and their former relations with each other. He said:

> "Particular pains have been taken to say that I had turned traitor to my former professions, and abandoned Stephen A. Douglas. I have never abandoned any of my political doctrines, and I never was a Douglas man. [Applause.] I want men to know just where I stand. I thus make this public declaration and repeat it—I have never been a Douglas man, for I always despised his principles—if he ever had any. I say there is no man in the Democratic party of the borough of West Chester, or in the county of Chester, who has ever heard me say a word of praise for the person of Stephen A. Douglas. I have privately and publicly denounced him; I have spoken against him consistently and persistently for ten years; for I know him well; having watched his course closely. I have not been deceived.—I know that he is not to be trusted, even when you have your eyes upon him. [Great applause.] I think I have gone as far in doing this as a man could do, having a personal regard for himself.
> I have said that I would rather vote for Breckinridge than for Stephen A. Douglas, for he is infinitely the better man. I have never found Douglas true to his own principles, and I have said so at all times. I have said so to his intimate friends—to his private secretary. I have known him for years to be a political mountebank, a scheming trickster, who recognizes the interests of but one person in the United States, and that one is Stephen A. Douglas himself. I propose to help a larger interest than that, I have higher interests than the elevation of such a man to the Presidency."

The War in Iowa.

THE Boonesboro' Democrat, a newspaper printed in Boone Co., in this State, (Iowa,) which had hoisted the names of Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson at its head, has now come out for Lincoln and Hamlin, and will hereafter be devoted to the advocacy of Republican principles. Douglas papers and Douglas men are fast coming over to the Republican ranks. These are some of the signs of the times that speak louder than words; they foretell the annihilation of the Democratic forces.

STILL ANOTHER CONVERSION.—Mr. C. Norris, of Nashua, Chickasaw county, came to the recent Republican mass convention, in this place, a Democrat, and returned a Lincoln man. He now shouts for "Lincoln and Hamlin—Freedom and Victory," with a greater zest than ever he cried "Squatter Sovereignty."—St. Charles City Intelligencer.

WE LEARN from the Mitchell Gazette that Mr. T. M. Atherton, who was elected by the Democracy of that county as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, has publicly declared his renunciation of Democracy, and joined the Republicans. He did not go to the State Convention, but had the curiosity to see the Republican mass convention held in this place on the 10th ult., when the scales fell from his eyes, and he is now as zealous in doing Republican service as he had formerly been in persecuting the friends of free principles.—St. Charles City Intelligencer.

DANGER OF THE UNION.—Judge ORR, who stumped Missouri as an opposition candidate for Governor, ridiculed the idea of danger to the Union from the success of the Republicans, and told the following story to illustrate the assinine character of such threats:

> "The people are beginning to know them as well as the lion knew the donkey, with whom he was travelling. The pair becoming hungry, the donkey proposed that they should turn aside to a cornfield. They did so, and the donkey having feasted on its contents was preparing to leave; but the lion said: 'What am I to do? I cannot eat corn.' 'True,' said the donkey, 'but if you lie in the bush here, I will go into the thicket yonder, and frighten the deer with a bray, so that you can catch one when they attempt to escape.' The lion agreed, and the jackass going into the thicket brayed so terribly that all the deer in it came running out. The lion seized one and made a meal of the prey. On coming back, the donkey, with much conceit, asked: 'Didn't I scare them?' 'Yes,' replied the lion; 'and you would have scared me, too, if I hadn't known who you were!' Just so we might be frightened by the predictions of danger to our institutions by the Democrats, if we did not know exactly what value to set upon them."

THE OSHKOSH DEMOCRAT has a mammoth announcement of a harvest-home which is to be held in that city, on the 23d inst. Judging from the programme the attractions are novel and numerous and such as will afford a grateful multitude of enjoyment.

Northern New York.

PERU, Clinton Co., N. Y., Aug. 7.

THE ROUTES.

From Montreal to New York or Boston, the route is, first, by the Montreal & Champlain railroad, which leading either from St. Lambert, opposite the city, to Rouse's Point, or from Montreal via Lachine and Caughnawaga to Plattsburgh. At Rouse's Point, connections are made with the Vermont Central for Boston and with the fine boats on Lake Champlain for points South. At Mooer's Junction, connection is made with the road for Ogdensburgh. Running in connection with the Vermont Central, this line is a rival of the Grand Trunk, and furnishes a route seventy-five miles shorter from Montreal to Boston, and on which freight cars run through, while the Grand Trunk is obliged to re-ship everything at Portland, where a change of guage occurs. The road, and indeed all of the above-mentioned American operated roads, are in fine condition, the cars and track reminding one of the Lake Shore road to Chicago, and the officers being all intelligent, enterprising men. Tourists stopping in Montreal, whether going over this road or not, will find a gentleman willing and capable to furnish information in Mr. W. A. MERRY, the courteous Secretary of the Montreal & Champlain railroad company, who is always at his office, No. 64 Commissioners' street.

LAKE CHAMPLAIN

Is one of the most charming sheets of water in the country. The view from the deck of the steamer, from Rouse's Point to Plattsburgh is delightful, whether you turn toward the Green Mountains on the one side, or the summits of northern New York on the other.

Plattsburgh is a flourishing village pleasantly situated on both sides of the river Saranac. It has four churches and about 3,000 inhabitants. There are falls in the river here of about forty feet, affording a large amount of water power. On these there are several manufacturing establishments, but they are only partially occupied.

The town is full of interesting localities, rendered classic by events in the war of 1812.

The U. S. barracks here are occupied by sixty men, under command of Col. BURKE, formerly of Fort Hamilton.

The road from Plattsburgh to Peru village is mostly through a deep sand.

THE CHASM.

Few persons who have never visited this section are aware of the extent and picturesqueness of the Ausable chasm, or, as it is familiarly called, "the high bridge," tho' no bridge has existed there for a generation or a two. The place is a Niagara on a smaller scale. The Ausable here has two falls, one of them of about fifty feet; and below the falls the river plunges into a deep chasm in the solid rocks. This chasm, averaging about one hundred feet in width, is in most parts nearly a hundred and fifty feet deep, and extends a mile and more in length. The ravine—probably the result of some terrible convulsion of nature, presents sides of clear rock, as perpendicular as if laid with plumb and lead, and showing an agreement in the seams on either side of the smaller splits as if they were once united. Steps have been built by which visitors descend to the level of the stream, and looking up from thence the view is one of the most romantic beauty. The falls are some two miles below Keeseville.

Yours, BADGER.

DONEGANA HOTEL, MONTREAL, Aug. 9, 1860.

MR. AND MRS. DIVES.

From Burlington to Rouse's Point by the afternoon boat is a delightful boat. No painter can do justice to the gorgeous sunset,—the rays of the inimitable orb lighting up with inimitable tints the shifting clouds which veil the lofty Adirondacks, and the calm bosom of Lake Champlain reflecting, like a mirror, the mild splendors of departing day.

The whole family, I noticed, were on board; and, horresco referens, had piles, cords, mountains of baggage—that opulent party had; that party consisting of the Hon. Mr. VOOSEVELT, and the extensive Mrs. VOOSEVELT, and the two young VOOSEVELTS and their two common servants, besides one not so common. It was midnight ere we ferried over from St. Lambert to Montreal; the ride had been tedious; "Badger" was tired; everybody looked out for himself and we made for the busses. The VOOSEVELTS, it seems, were also going to the Donegana; among the faults of which we shall accuse them, ignorance of the nature and quality of food is not found. Your correspondent approached the familiar "bus" of this hotel and was about entering when the grand lady inside shuffled on the seat, with a sort of spready movement, like one cornering sheep, and she spoke:

Mrs. Voosevelt.—"This 'bus' is engaged, sir, for our party."

Badger.—"Ah?"—to the driver—"How is that?"

Driver.—Get in sir, all right.

Mrs. Voosevelt.—"Oh!" (fluting tone.)

Badger.—"Ahem."

We rolled up Jacques Cartin Square, where the two Russian cannon are placed for a show, and Mrs. VOOSEVELT remarked, "oh! what a strongly fortified city."

We met at dinner to-day, and there they all sat—the ancient VOOSEVELT, drinking a little wine, his eye somewhat dim and his head in a yellow wig; Madame, drinking more wine, occupying a great deal of room and employing an imperial manner to the darkies; the young male VOOSEVELT, drinking most wine of all, with about as much cerebral development as an intelligent pig, a little humpy and very stupid; the young female do., do., (only strike out the word intelligent before pig.)

And these people possess, spend and use a fortune. Wherever they go, let the impecunious ones like "BADGER" stand from under, for the earth is the VOOSEVELT's and the fullness thereof. With their seventeen large trunks and two idiotic children, they go about seeking what they may devour,—"roast-beef consumere nati."

"Such is life." Yours, BADGER.

DONEGANA HOTEL, MONTREAL, Aug. 10, 1860.

The meaning of the name "Montreal" is the "Royal Mount," and certainly the back ground to the city is a royal looking mountain, crowned with evergreens and other trees, and form a fine finish to the picture presented by the city, which seems majestically to rise from the water.

All along the slopes of the mountain are many fine edifices embowered among the trees; in truth, one cannot pass along in any direction, without being struck with the charming beauty of the scenery, while thro' the opening of the streets many views are gained of the magnificent St. Lawrence rolling along its tide in solemn dignity to the ocean.

And now, let us propose a drive around the Mountain. No sooner said than done, and here we are in a caleche traversing the long line of St. Lawrence Street, till after we pass the tollgate we turn off to the left and ascend gradually the Mountain side, and the road takes us up to Mount Royal Cemetery, a large Necropolis tastefully laid out, having many fine tombs, and adorned with flowers and shrubs and winding walks. Returning, at a little distance down, a road branches out again on the left hand, and now we traverse along, while that portion of the Island which extends up the Ottawa opens to the view, with the Isle of Jesus in the distance, and St. Ann's at the junction of the two rivers. The country round looks rich and fertile, varied with trees and dotted with farms. Winding down the western side we arrive at the pretty little village of Cote des Neiges, lying in the bosom of the Mountain and sheltered by its branching arms from the north and east. From the village there are two roads into Montreal, one around the base of the little Mountain, as it is called, and one over the defile which seperates the mountain proper from the one just mentioned. As the latter road ascends the eminence it curves to avoid too steep a grade and gradually we reach the summit, at which a tollgate is placed. Here we are quite shut in on all sides, but watch! as our vehicle turns yonder corner ahead. There lies the city at our feet with its spires and houses and streets. There arise the two towers of the French Cathedral and yonder are the tall masts of many a gallant vessel. This is a favorite drive and is the most interesting about the city.

Yours, BADGER.

From Syria.

A letter from Rev. W. M. THOMPSON, American Missionary in Syria, to WM. A. BOOTH, Esq., of New York, has been published. It is dated June 27th 1860. We make a few extracts:

The church at Hasbelya is burnt, and the Protestant community destroyed in the general destruction of the town and massacre of the Christian population. A thousand new made widows, and many thousand fatherless children, form but items in the general account. Jezzin, and all the Christians between that and Sidon burnt and butchered. The poor Christians were hunted down and slaughtered, quite to the gates of the city, by Druses, Moslems and Metualis. The Sidon station is suspended. Mr. Ford has removed to this place; Mr. Eddy gone to America.—The station of Dier el Kamar is dead; the missionary is saved and has got to Abeih.—All the men of Deir were butchered—the women and children have reached this place. Zaleh is blotted out—every house burnt as at the Deir.

I mention these principal towns, intending to imply that all the Christian villages and hamlets naturally included between these extreme points have likewise been sacked, burnt and destroyed, with the exception of certain places between Beirut and Abieh. The station at the Seik is suspended, and Mr. Bliss and the young ladies of the female Seminary have fled to Beirut, and are now here. Mr. Calhoun is to disband the male Seminary at Abieh, and hold himself in readiness to descend at a moment's warning. Brother Wilson has abandoned Heins and come to Tripoli. We shall probably shut up our press to-day and put our large property there in the best position we can for any coming emergency. Our schools are all dispersed, and we are just holding on the fragments of our mission to see what the Lord intends to do with us.

I am requested by the brethren of the mission to ask you whether you would allow any part of your generous donation to be expended in saving from starvation those who were to have been taught? Before the war was three days' old, I had to suspend our female school that you saw examined, and give up the entire premises, gardens and all, to the wretched refugees from the mountains; and from that day to this we have had several hundred of these most miserable people on our premises. Our utmost ability is exhausted to feed this exhausted crowd. They have lost everything. It is heartrending to behold these thousands of widows and orphans, many of whom were rich, now wandering about like ghosts in rags, begging their daily bread.

According to your written requests, we began to expend your donation. A fine class of girls was taken into the female seminary, and Mr. Calhoun was to have commenced his theological class at Abieh, whilst some common schools were kept on that would have been disbanded. Now all these things are gone, and we cannot say when they can be re-commenced; while the mission has been put to great expense to save the lives of the people, by hiring guards, canvass and animals to bring the exposed out of the fire to a place of safety. We have not been able ourselves to carry bread to the perishing, without being accompanied by government guards, whom we have had to pay at very high rates. Will you authorize us to direct at least a part of your donation to those works of mercy?

As there are thousands of widows and orphans, and tens of thousands whose houses are burnt, and their effects plundered, an enormous amount of suffering is inevitable, do what we may. During the warm, dry months, parents and children can sleep under the trees, as they are now doing; but the cold rainy months will be on us, and then the people must have clothes and a shelter of some sort or other, or die. Are there not some of your wealthy friends who will aid us to alleviate this dreadful calamity? Every cent will buy a little loaf for some one, who otherwise may have none. We shall make an appeal to England also, and elsewhere wherever there is benevolence to be reached. As you and your sons and family know something about this country, you will doubtless be happy to act as the channel through which charities can reach this wretched people.

As to the prospects of our mission, it is too early to speak with any confidence.—Any interference of France and Russia in the affairs of this country, would probably send us all to the sea for personal safety. We might lay off shore in a ship until the fight is over and then return to our homes. We may be driven to Cyprus, Rhodes, Malta, &c., &c. No human sagacity can predict what is to take place to morrow. There is but too much reason to apprehend such a foreign interference, and it may come any hour.

Dr. Van Dyck and wife are in Germany. Mr. Eddy and wife left us yesterday for America. We propose to remain by the stuff, and gather up the fragments of 30 years' labor, so soon as the storm lulls sufficiently to admit of such work.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED.—On the afternoon of the 31st ult., Mr. James Finley, wife and three children, of the town of Fayette, La Fayette County, left their house and went into the harvest field. On returning home in the evening, Mrs. Finley got ready supper for the family, shortly after partaking of which they were all taken seriously ill, and in a few moments were completely prostrated. In this condition they all lay till the next day about noon, when some person came to the house, and was horrified to find the inmates more dead than alive.

An alarm was immediately given, and the neighbors rushed to the house to the assistance of the helpless sufferers. Medical aid was obtained as soon as possible, and the Doctor's opinion was that they were poisoned, which subsequently proved to be too true, for on examining the tea-canaster, some flour and other articles, poison was discovered in large quantities. The whole family are yet in a very precarious state. It is hoped, however, that with proper care they may recover.

It is supposed that during the absence of the family, some demon, in human form entered the dwelling and scattered the poison over all the provisions in the house. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this diabolical deed may be brought to the punishment which they so richly deserve.—Mineral Point Intelligencer, Aug. 8th.

A LONDON PAPER states that on the 1st of September last, at 11h. 18m. a. m., a distinguished astronomer, Mr. Carrington, had directed his telescope to the sun, and was engaged in observing its spots, when suddenly two intensely luminous bodies burst into view on its surface. They moved side by side through a space of 35,000 miles, first increasing in brightness, then fading away; in five minutes they had vanished. They did not alter the shape of a group of large black spots which lay directly in their paths. Momentary as this remarkable phenomenon was, it was fortunately witnessed and confirmed, as to one of the bright lights seen by another observer, Mr. Hodgson, at Highgate, who, by a happy coincidence, had also his telescope directed to the great luminary at the same instant. It may be, therefore, that these two gentlemen have actually witnessed the process of feeding the sun by meteoric matter. But, however this may be, it is a remarkable circumstance that the observations of Kew show that on the very day, and at the very hour and minute of this unexpected and curious phenomenon, a moderate but magnetic disturbance took place; and a storm of great disturbance of the magnetic elements occurred four hours after midnight, extending to the Southern hemisphere. Thus is exhibited a seeming connection between magnetic phenomena and certain actions taking place on the sun's disk—a connection which Schwabe, compared with the magnetical records of our colonial observatories, had already rendered nearly certain.

We mean what we say, and stand ready to verify it every hour in the day, and every day in the week. We make it a point never to be undersold, and want it distinctly understood that we do our business upon that principle.

Country merchants can always sort up their stock with us, to a good advantage. We will sell you goods by the package as low as any of the wholesale dealers down town.

Butter and Eggs are received by us daily, from our agents in the country.

WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT METALLIC TIPPED BOOTS AND SHOES, for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods within the above States, without having first arranged with us and by our consent, are and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of any infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.

We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of these Tipped Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.

We shall recognize no Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.

THE HOUSE IN THE MEADOW.

It stands in a sunny meadow,
The house so mossy and brown,
With its cumbrous old stone chimneys,
And the gray roof sloping down.

The trees fold their green arms around it;
The trees a century old:
And the wind goes chaunting through them,
And the sunbeams drop their gold.

The cowslips spring in the marshes,
The roses bloom on the hill,
And beside the brook in the pasture
The herd go feeding at will.

Within the wide old kitchen,
The old folks sit in the sun
That creeps through the sheltering woodbine,
Till the day is almost done.

Their children have gone and left them;
They sit in the sun alone!
And the old wife's ears are failing,
As she harks to the well known tone

That won her heart in her girlhood—
That has soothed her in many a care—
And praises her now for the brightness
Her old face used to wear.

She thinks again of her bridal—
How dressed in her robe of white,
She stood by the gay young lover,
In the morning's rosy light.

Oh! the morning is rosy as ever,
But the rose from her cheek is fled;
And the sunshine still is golden,
But it falls on a silvered head.

And the girlhood dreams once vanished,
Come back in her winter time,
Till her feeble pulses tremble
With the thrill of Spring time's prime.

And looking forth from the window,
She thinks how the trees have grown,
Since clad in her bridal whiteness,
She crossed the old door stone.

Though dimmed her eyes' bright azure,
And dimmed her "hairs young gold,"
The love in her girlhood plighted
Has never grown dim or old.

They sat in peace in the sunshine,
Till the day was almost done,
And then at its close, an angel
Stole over the threshold stone.

He folded their hands together;
He touched their eyelids with balm,
And their last breath floated outward,
Like the close of a solemn psalm,

Like a bridal pair they traversed
The unseen, mystic road
That leads to the Beautiful city,
Whose "builder and maker is God."

Perhaps, in that miracle country,
They will give her lost youth back,
And the flowers of the vanished Spring-time
Will bloom in the spirit's track.

One draught from the living waters
Shall call back his manhood's prime,
And eternal years shall measure
The love that outlasted time,

But the shapes that they left behind them,
The wrinkles and silver hair—
Made holy to me by the kisses
The angel's hold printed there,

We will hide away in the willows,
When the day is low in the West,
Where the sunbeams cannot find them
Nor the winds disturb their rest,

And we'll suffer no tell-tale tombstone,
With its age and date to rise,
O'er the two who are now no longer,
In the Father's house in the skies.

WILLIE MAYHEW.

CHAPER II.

Deacon Mayhew was no common man.—His sixty years had been spent in the little village where he was born, in such retired rectitude that when, about fourteen years before, her dying father had placed the hand of his sad, shrinking child in that of Deacon Mayhew, on the very day after her betrothed lover sailed on a three years' cruise, even those who pitied the poor girl, forced into the uncongenial union, could not deny that "the Deacon had been a kind man to her people, and would no doubt make her a good home." A good home! Words how often profaned; a home where fear was always and love was not, until the feeble wail of an infant voice broke the spell, and the girl mother spent the wealth of her young love upon the babe so delicate, so beautiful, that came like a snow drop from the frozen earth into that chilled and desolate heart, a harbinger of joy, and hope, and gladness yet to come.—But from the hour he looked into that tiny infant face, he hated the child he felt was worshipped by the mother who had never loved him. A man may live a strictly moral life for sixty years with the gem of every vice hidden in his breast. Deacon Mayhew was hardened and strong with self reliance. He would have been a better man had he sinned more. The charity that "beareth all things and is kind," knew him not; the gentle humility remembrance of past error gives us, was not with him. It was his pride to say no man had ever seen him stumble; he paid every man his due; worked late and early; fulfilled to the letter his duties in the church; and when he married so late in life it was in a spirit of self-sacrifice, as he and all the neighbors thought to save the daughter of his friend from a marriage with the sailor lover to whom her heart was given, and from whose wild career of thoughtless folly her dying father resolved by this union eternally to separate her.

"How good of the deacon," said all men, "to take a poor foolish young wife just that her father might die in peace!" "And how will he treat her!" echoed the women. The pale wife looked a little paler when, a year after their marriage, news came that his ship was lost, and the 'lover her father's harsh command had forced her to forsake, would trouble her no more. Let us hope the Deacon never knew how cold his heart was when he prayed that very night. "May those predestined to eternal wrath be swiftly and suddenly cut off in their sins, not be suffered to corrupt the wavering sinners who may yet be numbered with the elect!" He knew the cruel words went like a keen knife to the heart of the woman who knelt beside him; poor heart which that day's news had withered; yet like a stern Nemesis he pronounced, as he believed, Heaven's doom upon the man she loved without one pitying glance, one gentle word. And because the infant face bore a strange and marked likeness to the drowned man did Deacon Mayhew hate the innocent child; yet he did not know he hated him. As he grew up his clothes were of the best, yet so fashioned that Will looked strange and unlike other boys—that shame and sorrow to a boyish mind. His food was of the best and unsparingly provided; but if he had a preference, that article was forbidden; if he expressed an aversion, that article was chosen. He was sent to school from infancy, and woe to him if by some childish fault he merited, as he but seldom did, the reproof of his teachers. Punishment so severe as to endanger his health surely awaited him, even when his extreme youth rendered the trivial fault excusable.

And for all these things the wise world praised him more and more; and said—oh! wise old world—"What a good man is Deacon Mayhew! He does not dress his boy in gay clothes, although he is so handsome that he might well be the pride of his old eyes; he does not pamper his stomach with dainties; he does not let his faults remain unpunished: he is indeed a father!" And thus the harsh cruelty was called a virtue that was in truth a blending of revenge, malicious envy, hatred, and deceit, black and monstrous in its hidden strength. Nor was it unsuspected by its victim. He had seen the cold grey eye glisten as the lash came down upon his blood stained shoulders, and he knew the punishment was more a pleasure than a penance to his cruel father. As he grew older, the boy's pride taught him to affect indifference; and he would bear the most unsparing chastisement without a murmur, while his mother, powerless to help, would stand beside him wringing her hands in unavailing grief, feeling every stroke, and praying for the pity she knew was a stranger to her husband's heart.

CHAPTER III.

When the last chime of the bell had sounded Mrs Mayhew stood by her cottage door, watching eargerly for her boy's return. A stranger passing by would have paused to admire the trim garden, the neat white house, with its rustic porch gay with roses and honey-suckle, and the cozy simplicity of its interior arrangements, as the wind lifted the white curtains that shaded the windows.—The house was indeed the model of a rural home; and the sweet pale face and modest dress of Mrs. Mayhew seemed well suited to a scene that shadowed forth a world of homely beauty. Yet, had the stranger known the spirit of austere tyranny that reigned in that humble cottage—could he have gazed into that woman's heart and read the dark history of care and sorrow that dwelt ever there—he might well have changed his admiring glance for an averted one, and his envy of the happy inmates for a sigh of earnest sympathy. As twilight deepened into nightfall, the mother's anxiety grew momentarily, and, putting her apron over her head, she hastened from door to door seeking intelligence of her absent one. A kindly neighbor, of whom she inquired, told her he had seen the boy playing on the green, and draining down his last glass of milk, and placing the rosy girl he was nursing off his knee, he told the pale mother that he would go and seek him.

"For I know the Deacon is a pretty hard man," he added, with a smile, "and doesn't have much patience with boys. Now, I haven't forgot I was a boy once myself; so if he is playing ball in the moonlight or has gone to peep at the circus. I'll bring him home and beg off his wipping this time, any way."

Off went the peacemaker on his friendly mission; and Mrs Mayhew, afraid to be absent from home when she expected her husband's coming, returned down the village street, straining her eyes to discover, in the shades of evening, some trace of the wanderer.

CHAPTER IV.

The cloth had long been spread, and the comfortable meal prepared, yet no footsteps sounded on the gravel walk that led up to the door. The wooden clock ticked loudly, and seemed, to the excited nerves of Mrs. Mayhew, to utter words of terror. She tried to drown the sound by attending to some noisy household duties; but shrill and strong above the clatter of tea things or hum of the spinning wheel rose the voice of that unsparing monitor, that marked the lapse of time since Will's hour of play had expired. Every evening at nine the Deacon read prayers, and the orderly household retired for the night; it lacked but little of that hour when his wife heard his step without the door. Firm and unfaltering was that step as were his resolves—the voice of the clock was silenced by the thick pulsations of her throbbing heart. She started from her seat; then, faltering in her resolve to tell of the truant's absence, and beg forgiveness, or at least mitigation of his punishment, she sunk back in her chair, caught up her knitting, and with trembling hands affected to be busied as, raising the latch, her husband entered the door.

"You need not have waited for me—I have had my supper," was his salutation as he sat down in his large arm chair.

"Then I will clear away the things. I have a bad headache, and am not hungry," said his wife, rising hastily, glad to escape observation by busying herself about the table and the cupboard, while her agitation increased every moment. She saw that in her husband's face that made her tremble. She knew that his eyes were fixed upon her—that he read her inmost thoughts; yet, when he turned suddenly and asked, "Has William gone to bed?" she answered, "Yes," while the crimson flush of shame mounted to her forehead. The falsehood was useless as it was natural. Tyrants are ever the fathers of liars. Under gentle sway 'tis easy to confess a fault, more like to grieve than to offend; but the outbursts of unreasoning passion and the source create the very vices they affect to punish. The false monosyllable had scarcely passed her white lips when the trembling woman knew that its untruth must be patent; but, as she turned to explain, a keen flash of lightning lit up the face of her husband with a blue and ghastly glare, and a deafening peal of thunder drowned her faltering explanation.

"Listen!" said the stern old man, rising "That is God's sentence upon liars!" and as he stood, the lurid light still playing about his features, and his long white hair streaming to his shoulders, he looked indeed like an inspired prophet, with power to pronounce the fiat of the Most High. What wonder that the faint and shrinking mother cowered before her husband's glance, and sank back terrified into her chair. At this moment Graham, the pale-faced farmer, who had gone in search of Willie, entered the room.

"Good evening, Deacon. Mrs. Mayhew was right uneasy about Will, so I've been to look where the little fellow had got to, and where do you suppose I found him? Why, in the circus, just fairly carried away. I tried to call him; but there was such a crowd there was no getting at him, and he wouldn't have heard me, bless you, if I'd had a voice like the thunder, he was so wrapped up. The show goes away to night, and like as not he'll never have a chance to go again; so let him off this time, Deacon, just to favor me and his mother."

One glance did the stern husband give to the appealing face of his wife, and then replied, "Much obliged, Graham, for the trouble you've been at, but I can't change the rule of my household to please a neighbor. I heard where he was before. The boy has a hardened spirit and will be an outcast and a prodigal if the evil one is not driven out of him." Graham rose to go.—"Won't you stay and have prayer with us; it is just on the stroke of nine?"

"No, thank you, Deacon; it's just beginning to rain, and I'll get a ducking if I don't hurry home. Good night; don't take on, Mrs. Mayhew; the Deacon won't do no more than he thinks must be done; he knows he was a boy once himself;" so saying, with a pitying glance at the wife, he left the cottage thanking Heaven that he was not of his neighbor's household.

As he closed the door the large Bible was opened and the evening lesson read, and then a fervent petition offered that those predestined to eternal wrath might be swept from the earth. What a contrast did that fearful supplication offer to the sublime prayer that followed—a prayer common to all creeds—taught to the erring ones by Him whose tents ever breathe love and forgiveness! The rain that falls alike upon the just and unjust poured in torrents as the Deacon rose from his knees, closed the large Bible, while a light step passed the window, a trembling hand undid the door, and the poor mother, blinded by terror, felt, rather than saw, that it was her boy—her Willie—who entered the room.

St. Nicholas Hotel,
BROADWAY,
NEW YORK.

WHEN COMPLETED, SIX YEARS ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains today—without a rival in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its homelike comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER'S new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks,

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR
FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

In the more advanced stages of it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Disease.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lynville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moss, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. H. Hust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 7, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease. I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, to attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. P. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in a large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

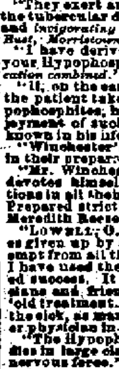
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.



THE SCIENCES OF CHEMISTRY and Medicine have been taxed to their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints: Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them and they should have it.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Additional by the Adriatic.

NEW YORK, August 11.

A letter from Napoleon to the French Ambassador at London, dated July 24, is published. Among other things he says: Since the peace of Villafranca, I have had but one thought, one object—to inaugurate a new era of peace, and to live on the best terms with my neighbors, especially England. I had renounced Savoy, and the extraordinary addition to Piedmont alone caused me to assume the desire to see re-united to France provinces essentially French. You object that "you wish for peace, and you increase immoderately the military forces of France." I deny the fact in every sense that my army and fleet have in them anything of a threatened character. My steam navy is even far from being equal to our requirements, and the number of steamers not nearly equal that of sailing ships thought necessary in the time of Louis Phillippe. I have 300,000 men under arms, but deduct from this amount 60,000 in Algeria, 6,000 at Rome, 3,000 in China, 20,000 gens d'armes, the Sicily new conscripts, and you will see my regiments are of smaller effective strength than during the preceding reign. The only addition to the army list has been by the creation of the Imperial Guard

Moreover, while wishing peace, I desire also to organize the forces of the country on the best possible footing, for if foreigners have only seen the bright side of the last war, I, close at hand, have witnessed the effects, and wish to remedy them.

Having said thus much, I have since Villa Franca, neither done, nor even thought anything which could alarm any one. When Lavalette started for Constantinople, the instructions which I gave him were confined to this: Use every effort to maintain the statu quo. The interest of France is that Turkey should live as long as possible.

Napoleon then touches on Syrian affairs, saying his first thought in the matter was to come to an understanding with England, and asks, what other interest than that of humanity could induce him to send troops to that country. He also says the interior organization of France and to increase her resources are fields large enough for his ambition, and sufficient to satisfy it. "It was difficult for me to come to an understanding with England on the subject of Central Italy, because I was bound by the peace of Villa Franca. As to Southern Italy, I am free from engagement, and ask nothing but concert with England on this point, as on others. In Heaven's name, let the eminent men at the head of the English government lay aside its petty jealousies and unjust mistrusts. Let us understand one another in good faith, like honest men, as we are, and not like the thieves who desire to cheat each other.

"To sum up, this is my innermost tho't. I desire Italy should obtain peace, no matter how, but without foreign intervention, and that my troops should be able to quit Rome without compromising the security of the Pope. I could much wish not to be obliged to undertake this Syrian expedition, and in any case not to undertake it alone: 1st. because it will be a great expense; 2nd, because I fear this intervention may involve the Eastern question; but, on the other hand, I do not see how to resist public opinion in my country, which will never understand how we can leave unpunished not only the massacre of Christians, but the burning of our consulates, the insult to our flag and pillaged monasteries which were under our protection."

The London Times, while evidently distrusting the Emperor, is glad of any occasion which has elicited a profession of such friendly sentiments, and trusts they foreshadow a policy under which we may enjoy peace without being compelled longer to support all the burdens of war.

Genoa, August 1.—Advices from Damascus are to the 16th of July.

Three thousand Christians had taken refuge in a citadel occupied by Algerines, under Abdel Kader. The town is in the power of murderers and incendiaries, to the number of 3,000. The Turkish garrison of 500 was inactive or hostile. Soldiers had driven the Christians into the flames of burning houses.

The same accounts compute the number of victims at from 2,000 to 8,000, but the statements may be exaggerated.

Rev. Mr. Graham, of the Irish Presbyterian Mission at Damascus, was murdered in the open street. He had a guard of Turkish soldiers, but they did nothing toward defending him.

The Turin journals speak of the probability of a meeting this month between the King and Napoleon.

A letter from Milan states that some Hungarian soldiers having obtained ball cartridges, fired into a corps of Chasseurs noted for loyalty to the Emperor. One Seargant was killed. Several of the Hungarian officers afterwards deserted.

The appearance of the French wheat crops has much improved, and prices were lower at Paris.

Murder.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug. 11.

An Irishman employed on the farm of Jacob Strawn, murdered his wife in the most brutal manner, and attempted to murder his little son, about five miles southwest of this town on Monday last. He broke her head and bruised her body terribly with a fence rail. The boy is badly hurt, but will probably recover. No motive is given by the murderer except that his wife and boy were a trouble to him. He is under arrest.

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—9 P. M.

Judge Arney, of Kansas, has filed in the General Land office, the necessary papers to obtain the right of way for the construction of a Railroad through southern Kansas to connect with the Galveston Railroad in Texas. The Commissioner General of the Land Office, has, in conformity with the law of Congress, granted the necessary instructions to the Land Officers having control of the lands through which this road will pass, to reserve the right of way, and lands for depots and water stations.

Mr. Arney left the city to-day for Kansas.

A corps of engineers were at once to proceed to make a survey through Kansas and the Osage and Cherokee Indian country, with a view to the permanent location of the Road through the Indian Territory. The construction of this Road will open the Western country with the Gulf of Mexico, and will open the travel and resources of a large portion of country in Kansas, the Indian Territory, and the States of Texas, Arkansas and other States which are now of comparatively little value. By the construction of a rail road from Atchison, connecting with the Hannibal and St. Joseph R. R., to Lawrence, and from Leavenworth to Lawrence, and thence south through the Indian Territory, to connect with the Texas roads, it is believed that millions of dollars will be added to the wealth of the U. S.

Thaddeus Hyatt, of the city of New York, is here on his way to the West. He, it is said, goes to Kansas to inquire into the condition of the people of that territory, who, it is reported, are on the verge of starvation from failure in crops.

The statement that a suit had been instituted against the Sergeant-at-Arms by Mr. Hyatt, is erroneous. His intention is to prosecute, in the State Courts, the individual Senators who voted for his imprisonment. These suits are now necessarily delayed, his counsel having been instructed to defer them until his return from the West.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.

The John L. Stevens sailed this morning for Panama with 202 passengers and $876,000 in treasure, $786,000 of which is for New York. Among her passengers were Lieut. Gills and the Bishop of Victoria, from Hong Kong.

The Pony Express, with St. Louis dates of 17th July, arrived at San Francisco on the 30th. Another Express with dates to the 23th is telegraphed and will reach San Francisco to-night. Confidence is now restored in the future regularity of the Express.

The Democratic State Central Convention, as appointed at the last State Convention, met at San Francisco on the 30th and 31st. After a long discussion, endeavoring to avoid a split in the party by holding but one State Convention and nominating but one electoral ticket, it was found impossible to act harmoniously. 26 committee men were for Breckinridge, and 10 for Douglas.

The former have called a State Convention to nominate an Electoral ticket on the 11th of September, and the latter hold their Convention, to nominate a Douglas Electoral ticket, on the 5th of September.

They claim that federal patronage and influence have greatly weakened their strength in the Convention. Each branch of the Convention published an address to the Democracy of the State.

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 13—9 P. M.

The Santa Fe mail arrived to-day. By it we have information that the troops at Hatch's ranche, under command of Lieut. Frank, had a skirmish with twenty-five Indians (Camanches.) They were on a stealing expedition. Two were killed, and several wounded. Shortly after, the herds of Monterey were surrounded and driven off, and other depredations committed. It was deemed prudent, under the circumstances, by the officers at Fort Union, to send reinforcements to Hatch's ranche, and another engagement is soon looked for.

Major Ruff, commander on the Pecos, it is said, has had a battle with the Camanches, with what result is not known.

Everything indicates a general Indian war, and the Indian tribes will soon be compelled to take part. They are becoming so bold now as to attack the trains. Harper had one hundred and thirteen head of cattle run off in daylight, and is now compelled to work his way in with two yoke of cattle to the wagon.

Two soldiers were followed into the camp on Pawnee Fork a few days since. The troops under Major Sedgwick are attempting to follow the Indians to the best of their ability, but the red dogs are too wary for them. Bent's Fort at last dates was threatened and so great was the apprehension of an attack that the sixteen Indian prisoners recently sent there were to be released unless the mail parties are strengthened. We fear they will not get through safely in time to come.

Interesting Discovery.

TORONTO, Aug. 13—9 P. M.

While workmen were excavating near the old fort, in this place, they discovered the remains of fifteen bodies of British and American soldiers, who fell in the war of 1812 — Several buttons, bayonets, ramrods, &c, were also found. One button has the initials of the Pennsylvania Rangers on it; another is marked U. S; another Eighth British Grenadiers. A few American coins were also found. From the location of the bodies it is evident that they were buried in the trench, near where they fell.

General Pike and 200 Americans, and a number of British, were killed near this spot in 1813, by the explosion of the powder magazine.

A New Mexican Forest on Fire.

From the St. Louis Democrat.

A friend just arrived from Santa Fe states that four Mexican herders were driving a herd of cattle through the mountains north of that place, a short time since, when the following incident occurred, which I give as I received it:

"The mountains were on fire at the time, but thinking the way clear before them, they proceeded up a valley until they found their way barred by an impenetrable wall of fire; in alarm they hastily retraced their steps, in the vain hope that escape might still be possible. But alas! they were too late; fire had closed the avenue by which they had entered the valley, and a broad belt of flame encircled them on every side, the area of which was rapidly diminishing ever moment. The drought had rendered the rubbish and undergrowth below as dry as tinder, and the flames licked them up with fearful rapidity; and springing upward, caught the pine leaves above, glossy with resin, and then leaping from tree to tree, formed a billow of fire awful to behold. The affrighted herd, bellowing with fear, dashed through the flames, most of them escaping badly burned, but some perished. Two of the herders attempted to follow them; but who can breathe in such an atmosphere, walk on burning coals, enveloped in flame, and live?

A few steps only were taken, when their nerves became contracted with the intense heat—their limbs refused to perform their office, and they sunk shrieking on a bed of fire, never more to rise. Their comrades heard the dying groans of their companions, and the wild bellowing of the herd, as they dashed through the sea of fire, and the roaring and crackling of the flames, as they came surging onward, and maddened by despair, they dashed wildly from side to side, eagerly seeking that which they dare not hope to find, and already suffering, in anticipation, the agonies of a death too fearful to think of, when a huge rock barred their way, and they saw, with a thrill of joy, that a small stream of water gushed out at its foot. Hope revived within them at the sight, and with an energy such as an emergency can only inspire, they improved the few remaining moments ere the flames should reach them in preparing to resist them — Everything combustible was removed, until the increasing heat forced them to desist; then inserting some dry branches in the crevices of the rock above the spring, they saturated their blankets with water and spread them out upon them, and seating themselves under their shelter continued to apply the water as fast as the scanty supply permitted.

Ashes, coals, and burning branches fell thickly around them, and their hopes fluctuated rapidly between hope and despair, as their chances of escape increased or lessened Moments seemed lengthened into hours, and doubtless more than agonies of death were passed by these poor herders, ere hope ripened into certainty, and they knew they were indeed saved as "brands from the burning."

JOHN RANDOLPH was one of the most sarcastic men that ever lived. One time a young man attempted to make his acquaintance. He obtained an introduction, and among the first remarks, said: "I passed by your house lately, Mr. Randolph." "I hope you always will," was the reply.—Another one twitted him as to his "want of education." "The gentleman reminds me," said Randolph, "of the lands at the head of the Montgomery, which are poor by nature, but ruined by cultivation."

NEW MATERIAL FOR SHOE NAILS.—Zinc nails are now extensively employed in the manufacture of boots and shoes, in place of wood or iron. It is said these nails are also substituted for sewing in ladies' slippers.—An iron last is employed and the nails, on being driven in, strike the last, and become headed or riveted on the inside, thus forming a very secure fastening.

GEORGIA IMPORTING FOOD.—The Nashville Banner says a large train of forty cars, freighted with corn, wheat and bacon, arrived at that point on the 26th ult., by the Louisville and Nashville road, and forwarded by way of Chattanooga to this State. MONETARY.

MONDAY P. M., August 13th, 1860.

Our money market is still quiet, the movement of produce not yet being sufficient to create any demand from that that source. Eastern Exchange continues steady, the banks selling at 1¼ premium.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.—We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day, in reference to money and stocks:

Stocks dull and lower. C & R I 81¼, C & T 47¼, G & C 79, Ill C scrip 82¾, C B & Q 85¾, M S 22¼, do gtd 46, S 10, M C 66¼, Reading 46¾, Harlem 19¾, do pfd 50¾, Hudson 57¼, Erie 26¼, N Y C 85¾, S 15, Tenn 6's 90¾.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.—The Press & Tribune of this morning says:

The demand upon bankers for accommodations continues heavy, and some of the larger houses whose customers are mainly engaged in the grain trade have about all the offerings they can take. With them currency begins to be a little scarce though the supply in the city is still abundant. The houses referred to offered exchange to-day freely at ¾ to bankers; but the current rate to customers is 1 ℘ cent. The fall in exchange will be likely to bring in outside buyers, but should expectations in this regard be disappointed, a further decline is not improbable.

The buying rate to-day is ¾ premium; though the houses that deal in produce paper declined buying except from customers.

There is much more activity in the money market, but it is fully supplied.

Gold selling rate 1¼; buying ¾, with few sales.

About all the wheat that came in to-day was taken early at Saturday's prices, viz: 88c for No. 2 spring in store, 90c for No. 1 do, and 94@96c for Club. Later in the day shippers were not so eager to buy, offering only 88@89c for No. 1, but we could hear of no sales at lower figures than the opening quotations. The supply of other grain was light and prices merely nominal. No transactions in flour; none offering. The receipts, it will be seen, are still mainly from the South, but little of the crops West and North being as yet ready for market.

We saw a despatch from Chicago to-day, reporting the receipts there at 129,000 bus, and a further decline of 1c in prices, No. 2 spring selling at 85c free on board —5c lower than the same quality sold in this market.

MANY HEADED WHEAT.—Mr. S. Edwards of this place, has shown us a bunch of a dozen stems of the many headed wheat. He calls it Egyptian wheat—perhaps that is the right name. The seed came here from California, and we understand Mr. Rufus Hull has raised this year two or three acres of it. Some of the stalks had heads that contained in all 160 kernels. There is one main head, and at the sides of it at the bottom shoot out the others. The stalks that we examined had seven heads each.—Ozaukee Republican.

This is the same kind of wheat which we alluded to a few days since as "white spring wheat," a sample of which was brought to this city from Minnesota. The gentleman who raised it said that some years ago he found a few ears of it in an old chest, which he believed came from Germany, and noticing its peculiar appearance resolved to try how it would grow on Minnesota soil. He accordingly sowed a few grains in the Fall and a few in the Spring—the latter turning out more healthy and yielding much better than the Fall sown. Last season he raised enough to seed two acres, which produced a hundred bushels. His success will doubtless lead to the cultivation of this description of wheat on a large scale in Minnesota. It is far superior to any other spring wheat we have ever seen, very much resembling white winter wheat.

TIDEWATER RECEIPTS.—The receipts at tidewater on the Hudson, of flour, wheat, corn, and barley, for the 1st week of August 1860 and 1859, have been as follows:

Year.	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1860	11900	358700	629400
1859	9300	87500	184800	5700
Inc	2600	211200	484600
Dec	...	....	....	5700

The aggregate of the receipts of the above articles so far for the years 1859 and '60, have been:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu
1860	363160	2933200	7052600	75000

Inc	170700	2288400	5819400	Dec. 71430

Reducing the wheat to flour, the increase in the receipts in 1860, is equal to 523880 bbls flour.

CHICAGO MARKET, AUGUST 13TH.—The following shows the receipts at Chicago, on Saturday, and sources of supply:

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The wheat market continues active, but a further decline of 1@1¼c was experienced on spring grades —the market closing quiet at 85@85¼c for No. 1, 84@84¼ for No. 2, and 75c for rejected. Winter wheat was steady at $1 for No. 1 red, and 94c for No. 2 do. Flour was dull and drooping. Corn active and steady at 43@43½ for No. 2, and 40c rejected. Oats were moderately active at a decline of 1c. Rye quiet at a shade easier. Nothing doing in barley. Freights active at a shade easier. Highwines firm and active. Sales were 250 bbls city at 18c.

ST. LOUIS MARKET, AUGUST 9TH.—From the Democrat:

FLOUR—Continues dull. A lot of 1,000 bbls city superfine was reported on private terms; 100 bgs choice do at $2,70, and 20 bbls rye flour at $3,75.

WHEAT—Superfine qualities dull and unchanged, while choice qualities were taken freely at very fair prices, mostly for seed. Sales comprise 1,165 bags spring and club from $5 to 91c; 323 choice club at 93c; 50 bags dirty and poor fall at 90c; 50 bags fair fall at $1,05; 174 bags good and prime at $1,10@1,13; 316 bags choice red at $1,15@1,19, and 1,076 bags choice on p. t.

CORN—With no shipping facilities to-day, and the advanced rates of freights asked, caused buyers to contend for lower prices, and very little was done — Sales were confined to 108 bags prime yellow at 47c, and 555 bags prime mixed and white at 47@45c, in good and new bags.

OATS—The want of shipping facilities cause a duller market, but holders were firm, and the business done was at steady prices. Sales comprise 1563 bags prime new at 30@31c in good and new bags; 214 bgs private; 100 bags old at 83c; and 276 bags choice old, bags returned, at 32c.

RYE—Was very dull to-day. The only sales reported were 44 bags at 70c, in bags; and 300 bags on private terms.

PORK—There was a better feeling in regard to mess to-day, which was in demand at $20,50@21.

BACON—Market steady with a moderate business in filling limited orders at full prices of yesterday, and 50 casks city clear sides were sold at 12¾c.

WHISKEY—The market was lower and unsettled today. Sales reported include 100 bbls city at 17¾c; 55 bbls do at the market; 72 bbls country at 17¼c; 50 bbls on p. t., and 74 bbls at the market price.

ST. PAUL MARKET, AUG. 9TH.—We have to caution our farmers against the idea of inflated prices, that is rather too prevalent in the country.

We imagine from all we can learn, that new wheat will command about 65c, and no more. Advices, of a private nature from England, state that the harvest will be much better than was expected, so that any holding back for high prices would be unwise.

In the article of flour there has not been enough in market from new wheat to cause any perceptible change in prices.

Oats can be quoted at from 25@32 cents, and very scarce.

By turning to our table of groceries it will be seen that prices are on the increase, both sugar, coffee and hams are higher, and prices may still take an upward tendency.—St. Paul Times.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET.—We extract the following from the New York Independent of Friday.

The season has commenced, and importers have opened their assortments and made some moderate sales to southern buyers. The Southern trade is most active in the month of August, and large sales are generally made by the 1st of September, by which time the supplies needed must be delivered. This year, however, the southern demand has opened badly.—Less than the usual demand has been presented. Cotton has taken a bad turn in the Liverpool market, and large reclamations have already been made, so that a bad season for dry goods is expected in that section of the country. The western demand does not commence so soon as this, and no western men have come on here. The western demand for goods will be an improved one, the crops enabling the dealers to get payments on their accounts, and to increase their stock of goods to meet the increased consumption. The city jobbers are making purchases, but only to a moderate extent.

The sales of dress goods have been mostly of English kinds. German and Belgian cloths are in good demand and at steady prices. French styles are yet inactive. More is done in domestic fabrics, staple cottons excepted, there being dull in comparison. Some Louisiana houses have been making purchases, but less than usual.

Prints have become very active, delaines and fancy cassimeres attracting numerous buyers. The export trade of cotton goods has greatly abated, and is below that of the corresponding period of last year.

RACINE & MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD.

It is announced that the long pending competition between the Racine & Mississippi and Galena Union R. R. has been terminated, both roads having agreed upon renumerative rates of fare and freight, to remain in force during the Fall season. The R. & M. R. R. traverses a country of unsurpassed fertility, and the advantages of our market over Chicago for the superior quality of wheat raised in Northern Illinois this season, will ensure it a large freight business during the coming Fall.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

The New York Tribune has the following in regard to the completion of this road to Appleton:

The bondholders of the Chicago and Northwestern Company are about to meet to act on the original intention of extending the road about twenty-four miles to Appleton through Neenah. It is understood that the right of way will be furnished by the people along the proposed line, and bonds will probably be issued at the rate of $8,000 per mile for ironing the road.—By making this extension, the Company will secure the land grant for which scrip has already been issued, as well as 22,000 acres additional.

JUNIUS JUDSON,

PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1854. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.
